Chapter 1 by Anthony Searles

"Someone told me this was a gameshow! Where did the guy with the cologne and fancy suit go? This has got to be the least fun gameshow I've ever been apart of, which I know isn't many, but I'm assuming most of them are fun."

No response except my own voice echoing off of the giant metal walls. How did I get talked into this? Cindy told me it would be a good idea and lots of fun, but so far I've been bored, hungry, lonely, excited and not a little scared all in about 1 hour.

I don't even see a door, how did I get in here? The last thing I remember is a guy, who I assumed was the host, blindfolded me and asked me if I was ready to have my life changed. I was so excited I didn't even think before accepting the blind fold, and now look where I am.

Ding Dong "Arm yourself and get ready. Your first game starts in 3, 2, 1"
